

Are we allowing fear to be a factor in our lives?

Fear can be a barrier to the path that God wants us to take in life.

Fear will always be a factor in your life, but how you respond to it will determine its significance.

When fear is a factor in our lives, we can choose to believe the fear, or we can choose to believe God.

Numbers 13:25–33

At the threshold of promise, Israel had to decide if they would believe fear and abandon their promised land, or believe God and conquer it.

Overcoming the factor of fear means seeing things that others cannot.

– Whenever you can see things that others cannot see, you can do things other cannot do.

Overcoming the factor of fear can come at a great cost.

– Good ground comes at a great cost.
